

'Fire & spice' celebrates winter in Clawson

Sunday, February 19, 2012

Clawson gave area residents a reason to celebrate winter this weekend as it hosted its "Fire & spice ... and everything nice" festival from noon to 4 p.m. Saturday in the downtown area at Main Street and 14 Mile Road.

The family friendly event featured a chili cook-off hosted by area restaurants, a marshmallow drop for children conducted by the Clawson Fire Department, bonfires, a chain saw art show, food, games and more.

The festival is sponsored by Clawson's Downtown Development Authority.

Hope Malczynski of Madison Heights plays with an antique toy from the Clawson Historical Museum.

Seven-year-old Drake Spicer of Clawson, second from left, took top prize Saturday in the marshmallow drop at Clawson's "Fire & spice" festival.